

Faculty of Health Sciences Ambassador Program

Application Form

As an FHS Ambassador you are a dedicated member of the Faculty of Health Sciences, proud to work at McMaster University. You are friendly with a positive attitude, strong communication skills, and well-regarded and respected by others. You have demonstrated high performance; have a strong understanding of the Faculty’s culture, environment and norms; and want to share this passion and your knowledge and experiences to help welcome new employees. As an FHS Ambassador you will connect with new employees during their first days to provide an open, positive space for conversation and be a contact for general information on norms and day-to-day life in the Faculty. You will always be professional and maintain a high level of respect and trust. In this volunteer position, it will be your decision how often you engage in this program and with our new hires. If this sounds like something you want to be part of, please complete the following form and submit to FHS Human Resources (contact information below).
